St. James's, November 20.

THE humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the ancient Borough and Corporation of Leverpoole, in the County-Palatine of Lancaſter, was preſented to her Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Derby, Lord-Lieutenant of that County.

The following Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, and Commonalty of Her Majeſty's ancient Borough and Corporation of Dunwich, in the County of Suffolk; was preſented to her Majeſty by Major-General Harvey, one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Sunderland, one of her Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of your Majeſty's ancient Borough and Corporation of Dunwich, in the County of Suffolk.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

IT is with Hearts and Minds full of Affection and Duty that we make this humble Addreſs to your Majeſty, to Congratulate you upon the late great and mighty Victory your Majeſty's Arms, in Conjunction with thoſe of your High Allies, have lately obtained over the French in the wonderful Battel fought near Mons, and upon the reſt of the great Succeſſes of the laſt Campaign, which hath filled the World with Admiration, and our Hearts with the humbleſt and greateſt Thankfulneſs to Almighty God, and to your Majeſty for your continual Care for the good of your People,

Thoſe and the amazing Succeſſes of former Years Abroad, and the noble Acts for the Good of your People, that have been accompliſhed here in your auſpicious Reign, have made you a Terror to your Enemies Abroad, and the Delight and Deſire of your People of theſe Kingdoms, and will juſtly fill Hiſtory with ſuch Truths as will be the Wonder of After Ages.

Its your Majeſty's Wiſe Choice of as great a General as ever God bleſſed the World with (the Duke of Marlborough) the Wiſdom and Conduct of your Councils and Miniſtry that have procured theſe Bleſſings upon your Majeſty and your People.

And therefore we look upon it our Duty humbly to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will, to our utmoſt, aſſiſt you to obtain that glorious End your great Mind is purſuing (viz.) ſo to humble that lofty Monarch, your Enemy, as to oblige him to ſubmit to an honourable and laſting Peace; which that your Majeſty may do, and long live to enjoy the Glory of, are daily the Prayers of us, and all your good Subjects. Given under our Common Seal at our Guildhall the 14*th day of* November, in the Eighth Year of your Reign.

Which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Milan, Novemb. 9. N. S. The Biſhop of the five Churches continues at a Country-Seat four Miles diſtant from this City. The Imperial Troops are in full March towards their Winter Quarters, which are in the Vigevan, the Novarrois, the Paveſan, and the Cremoneſe. They who are to be quartered in the Modeneſe, the Parmeſan, and the Plaiſantin, are far inferior in number to what thoſe Countries have been charged with in former Years, though at preſent the Eccleſiaſtical State be entirely exempted from receiving any. Count Thaun arrived at this City on the 6th Inſtant, and will ſpeedily return to Vienna. Advices from Genoa ſay, that it was reported by Veſſels from Barcelona that Count Staremberg was returned into Arragon, had taken the City of Balbaſtro by Surprize, and deſigned to Winter moſt of his Troops in that Kingdom. Letters from Venice ſay, that the Republick had promiſed an Abatement of ten in the hundred to all ſuch as ſhould pay the Equivalent of their Taxes in Corn, that the Magazines and publick Store-houſes of the City may be ſtill ſupplied with that Commodity. We are adviſed from Rome that the Partiſans of the Duke of Anjou continue to ſue out Bulls, and ſollicit for Benefices of his Holineſs, notwithſtanding the Manifeſto of Monſieur Molinez, which was publiſhed by Order of the Court of Madrid. Cardinal Gualteri is gone to his Biſhoprick of Tody. Cardinal Ruffo will ſpeedily ſet out for Ravenna. It is believed that the Pope will intercede with his Catholick Majeſty for reſtoring the Inheritances of the Prince of Borgheſe's Family in the Kingdom of Catalonia, and will alſo endeavour to reconcile that Prince to the Intereſts of the Houſe of Auſtria.

Hamburgh, November 15. N. S. We have received certain Advices, that the King of Denmark deſigns to beſiege Landſcroon, and is making the neceſſary Diſpoſitions to inveſt it. The Duchies of Gottorp and Sleſwigh are very much alarmed at the Rupture between Denmark and Sweden; and they have concerted ſuch Meaſures as they think will be moſt proper for their own Security, and have given Inſtructions that the Militia of the Country be in continual readineſs to march on the firſt Notice. Advices from Berlin ſay, that his Pruſſian Majeſty returned on the 9th Inſtant to Schweed from the Conferences at Marienwerder, and was expected in that City on the 13th or 14th. General Schlund, who accompanied the King of Pruſſia to Marienwerder, hath entred himſelf in the Service of his Czariſh Majeſty, and it is ſaid that the Direction of the Artillery in the Siege of Riga will be committed to him. Letters from Poland adviſe, that King Auguſtus had determined in a Council of Senators to aſſemble a General Diet of the Nobility of that Kingdom; and Orders were given that due Notices be accordingly diſperſed to the reſpective Palatinates, to ſignifie his Majeſty's Return, and to appoint Warſaw for the Place of their Seſſion. King Auguſtus is ſpeedily expected in that City; and they hope that his Majeſty's Preſence will perfectly compoſe thoſe Differences which have ſo long diſtracted the State, and diſturbed the Peace of the Commonwealth. His Majeſty hath lately diſpoſed of ſeveral important Offices, and hath confirmed that of Chancellor of the Crown to the Biſhop of Warmia. It is reported, that the moſt conſiderable of thoſe who continue to oppoſe King Auguſtus's Re-eſtabliſhment, are retiring with the Forces under their Command towards Hungary. There is no certain Account of the King of Sweden; ſome Advices ſay, that his Majeſty continued at Bender, where he was treated with great Reſpect; and that Prince Mazeppa, the General of the Coſſacks, died there on the 3d of the laſt Month of a Malignant Fever; but by other Letters we are informed, that his Majeſty is actually ſet out towards his own Dominions, but it is uncertain which way he will return to Sweden.

Bruſſels, November 22. N. S. The Law-Suit between the King of Pruſſia and the Prince Naſſau of Friſeland, concerning ſome Lands in Brabant, formerly belonging to his late Majeſty King William, hath been decided in favour of the Prince. Frequent Conſultations have been held in this City concerning the Affairs of the Town of Mons, and Province of Hainault. The laſt Advices from Paris ſay, that the Duke of Bavaria had viſited the Palaces of Marli and Verſailles, and returned to that City on the 16th Inſtant. It is uncertain when that Prince will return to Compiegne. The French King hath ordered the State of the Finances, and the Accounts of the Revenues of the Crown to be laid before him. Monſieur des Maretz hath, on this Occaſion, made it appear to the Council, that his Majeſty's Income was ſunk fifteen Millions of the uſual Revenue in the Year 1708.
